HOW TO TURN A BIRDING VACATION INTO A SCIENTIFIC CONTRIBUTION

Planning to bird in the Canadian Maritimes this summer? The MARITIMES BREEDING BIRD ATLAS is looking for knowledgeable field birders or those with previous atlasing experience to help map the distribution of the region's breeding birds. The work is volunteer, but we may be able to offer free accommodation in certain areas. A knowledge of canoeing and outdoor camping would be an asset but is not required. To turn your vacation into an enduring scientific contribution, contact:
