

SCENES FROM OPERATION RECOVERY

Top: Bruce Adams at Island Beach, extracting a Flicker from one of his big nets (see EBBA News 31:5, p. 203). Center: Mabel Warburton's net lane and "field headquarters" at Island Beach. Bottom: Bill Clark and friend (Kestrel) at his hawk-banding set-up at Cape May (we hope to publish his article on this subject in the next issue).
