

THE NEW SCHEDULES
Deadline -- January 31, 1962

Schedules of birds banded in 1961 are due at the banding office on or before January 31, 1961 -- so get ready to send them in as soon after the first of the year as possible.

Some banders have received the new schedules, and Allan Duvall says that others will receive theirs during December. If you don't get your supply of the new schedules by January first, write the banding office and ask for them.
