

Eleanor Dater's letter to EBBA's President:

Dear Becky:

Time does not permit me to continue as agent for the procurement and sale of mist nets for EBBA.

I would appreciate your finding a replacement by September 15, 1966. I will be available to discuss details of the transfer at your convenience.

It is only cricket to inform the new agent that this is an arduous task that requires 365 days a year of his time.

With this formality taken care of I can don my Blue Jay wings and take flight. If they fall off I will substitute Goldfinch wings. Good luck.

Sincerely,

(signed) Eleanor E. Dater
