

Bird=Lore for Christmas

No present could be more appropriate for a friend who is interested in birds, or a friend whom it may be desired to interest in birds, than BIRD-LORE for the coming year. As the first number of the new volume will not be issued until February 1, 1902, we have prepared as a BIRD-LORE Christmas Card, a full-page plate of the Cruikshank portrait of Audubon. On receipt of the subscription price to BIRD-LORE, ($1.00), and the name and address of the person to whom it is wished to have the magazine sent, this card will be properly filled out and, with a free copy of BIRD-LORE for December, will be mailed in time to be received on Christmas Day.

Or the subscription may be sent and we will forward the magazine and the Christmas Card in blank, to be filled in and mailed by the donor.

☞ For this occasion we will make a reduction in the subscription price to BIRD-LORE, and offer five subscriptions for the sum of $4.00.

Orders for these Christmas Cards should be sent at an early date, in order to ensure their delivery in due season.

Bird=Lore for 1902

ERNEST SETON-THOMPSON, who has written an illustrated article on 'The Recognition Marks on Birds,' for December BIRD-LORE, will write, in 1902, on 'How to Keep a Journal'; William Brewster will describe the bird voices of New England swamps and marshes; F. A. Lucas will write, with numerous illustrations, of 'The Weapons of Birds'; D. G. Elliot and Capt. C. A. Curtis, U. S. A., will contribute Recollections of Elliott Coues; and Frank M. Chapman will present a series of six fully illustrated papers on the families of Passerine birds. There will also be a series of articles on 'Bird Clubs in America,' and other important illustrated papers by Richard Kearton, Dr. T. S. Roberts, A. Radclyffe Dugmore and others.

Every Ornithologist

should find the past and present publications of the Cooper Ornithological Club of California, of greatest interest and value. The proceedings of this live Western Club consist of two series:

THE CONDOR,

A 24-page bi-monthly, illustrated magazine, issued on the fifteenth of each alternate month, and aimed to fill the field of an up-to-date bird journal, publishing articles of special interest to technical ornithologists, nidologists and active field workers generally. The two volumes thus far completed outline the journal's policy and scope for the future, and it can safely be assumed THE CONDOR for 1901 will eclipse its previous record in extent and value of material published.

Vol. I (1899), $2; Vol. II (1900), $1.; Current Volume, $1.

PACIFIC COAST AVIFAUNA NO. 1,

"Birds of the Kotzebue Sound Region, Alaska," by Joseph Grinnell. A large octavo 80-page publication, embracing an accurate, detailed and interesting narrative of the author's experiences among the birds of the Far North, during a year's sojourn north of the Arctic circle. The biographies of the 113 species and subspecies of birds treated in the paper are unusually valuable, and the paper is accompanied by a 3-page map of the region.

A sample copy of 'The Condor' will be mailed on application. Address

C. BARLOW, Editor and Business Manager,
Santa Clara, Cal.

THE FORESTER.

During the coming year The Forester, the illustrated monthly magazine of the American Forestry Association, will be more interesting and valuable than ever before. No one who cares for trees or life in the woods, or who is interested in the movement to encourage the preservation and care of the forests should be without it.

Among the contributors are Gifford Pinchot, Chief of the U. S. Division of Forestry; Dr. B. E. Fernow, Dean of the New York State College of Forestry; Henry Gannett, Geographer of the U. S. Geological Survey; Dr. John Gifford; Prof. Henry S. Graves of the Yale Forest School; Dr. C. A. Schenck, of Biltmore, N. C.; Hon. James Wilson, Secretary of Agriculture; Prof. Wm. R. Dudley, of Stanford University, Cal.; Prof. N. S. Shaler, of Harvard University; and many others of note and authority on their specialties.

Besides a number of contributed articles, each issue of the magazine will contain a record of legislation touching the interest of the country's forests (of which there will probably be a good deal during the coming year) with editorial comment, and reviews of recent publications by the most competent experts. Each number is handsomely illustrated.

Subscription $1.00.
