THE AUK

A Quarterly Journal of Ornithology

ORGAN OF THE AMERICAN ORNITHOLOGISTS' UNION

Edited by Dr. Glover M. Allen

MUSEUM OF COMPARATIVE ZOOLOGY

CAMBRIDGE, MASS.

To whom all articles and communications intended for publication and all books and publications for review should be sent.

Manuscripts should be typewritten if possible. As an aid in bibliography, titles should be brief. References to literature, if few, may be inserted in parenthesis at the appropriate places in the text, or listed at the end of the paper rather than in footnotes. Roman numerals and extensive tables are to be avoided. Line drawings intended for text illustrations should be in India ink; half-tones cannot be printed in the text since the paper is unsuitable. Longer articles should have a brief summary at the end. Except on request, no proofs of 'General Notes' or short communications will be submitted to authors.

Twenty-five copies of leading articles are furnished to authors free of charge. Additional copies or reprints from 'General Notes,' 'Correspondence,' etc., must be ordered from the editor when the manuscript is submitted.

THE OFFICE OF PUBLICATION

8 WEST KING STREET, LANCASTER, PA.

Subscriptions may also be sent to W. L. McAtee, Business Manager, 3200 22d Street N., Arlington, Va. Foreign Subscribers may secure 'The Auk' through H. F. and G. Witherby, 326 High Holborn, London, W. C. Subscription, $4.00 a year. Single numbers, one dollar.

Free to Honorary Fellows, and to Fellows, Members, and Associates of the A. O. U., not in arrears for dues.

HOW TO AFFILIATE WITH THE AMERICAN ORNITHOLOGISTS' UNION

There are several classes of membership in the A. O. U., of which those of Associate or Life Associate are open to new affiliates. Associate Members receive 'The Auk' for a payment of $3 per year, one dollar less than the rate to non-affiliated subscribers. There is no initiation fee. Life privileges in the Associate class may be obtained for a single payment of $50. Associate Members (like all other classes) are elected only at the annual meeting of the Union, usually held in autumn, but applicants may be given the provisional status of associate member-elect and receive the volume of 'The Auk' for the year in which application is made, at the $3 rate. 'The Auk' is published quarterly, in January, April, July, and October.

Application for associate membership in the Union may be sent to
