"The most complete text-book of regional ornithology which has ever been published."—MR. FRANK M. CHAPMAN, in BIRD-LORE.

HANDBOOK OF BIRDS OF THE WESTERN UNITED STATES

By FLORENCE MERRIAM BAILEY

With 33 full-page plates from drawings by Louis Agassiz Fuertes, and over 600 text illustrations. $3.50 Net. Postpaid, $3.69.

"Up to the present time we have lacked a scientific manual of our western birds, and it has remained for Mrs. Bailey to supply the very pressing need. This book is in every way adequate and will no doubt stimulate to good work many who, heretofore for lack of proper literature, have felt their enthusiasm scarcely equal to the task of mastering our perplexing avifauna. The HANDBOOK will supply this want."—MR. WALTER K. FISHER, in THE CONDOR.

MRS. OLLIVE THORNE MILLER'S WITH THE BIRDS

IN MAINE

16 mo. $1.50 Net. Postage 10 cents

Mrs. Miller here enters with real sympathy into the domestic affairs of the bird families she has watched during the last ten years, and tells many droll and tragic tales of their doings, traits and habits."—THE OUTLOOK.

RALF HOFFMANN'S GUIDE TO THE BIRDS

Illustrated by FUERTES and others

12 mo. $1.50 Net. Postage Extra

A complete guide to the identification of Birds of New England and Eastern New York. It treats in a general and attractive manner all the regular land-birds, and includes accounts of the commoner shore-birds and such sea birds as may generally be seen from the shores.
