THE BIRDS OF NORTH AMERICA

A magnificent work, equal to Audubon's Birds.—Education, Boston.

By JACOB H. STUDER

This Book contains 119 beautifully colored plates, 12x15 in., representing over 800 birds, drawn and colored from life by Dr. Theodore Jasper. The shades of color, the fall of the plumage, the characteristic attitude, and the botanical surroundings are wonderfully exact. The text, which Dr. Elliott Coues pronounced "perfectly reliable," covers 182 pages, and is based on the field observations of the most eminent ornithologists. The whole is prefaced by a systematic table and index to page, plate, and figure, arranged according to the classification which was prepared by Frank M. Chapman, and adopted by the American Ornithologists' Union. There is no Ornithology now in print to compare with this magnificent work, its merits being attested to by the most renowned ornithologists of the day. The Book, which is an imperial quarto, and bound in half russia leather, with cloth sides and gilt top, has always been sold for $40.00. OUR SPECIAL PRICE, including express charges, is $10.00.

Chapters on the Natural History of the United States

By DR. R. W. SHUFELDT

Issued under the Auspices of the Natural Science Association of America

This volume is a handsomely printed royal octavo of about 400 pages, illustrated by many full-page plates and numerous text figures. In scheme the book consists of a series of chapters devoted to the life histories of many of the better-known mammals, birds, fish, reptiles, and insects of the United States, written in a thoroughly instructive and popular style. Scientific technicalities are, however, not altogether ignored, but are so incorporated as not to interfere with the popular presentation of the subject matter as a whole. One of the chief features of the work consists in the elegant half-tone plates reproduced from a remarkable series of photographs, all made by Dr. Shufeldt himself from the living forms. Fully four-fifths of these are of the size of life, and present the subjects in their characteristic attitudes, and frequently with all the natural surroundings of their haunts in nature. From this point of view alone, these figures constitute a series highly calculated to help teachers and parents throughout the world; to educate students and pupils of all ages in the correct appreciation of form of living creatures; and finally, to stand as models of great value for the use of artists and taxidermists. Indeed, the work cannot fail to be but of the greatest use to teachers in the public schools throughout the United States, while in the library of the general reader it will fill the place of one of a class of works upon natural history, which, in the age of biological literature, are only too rarely produced, given over, as a majority of them are, to the more technical treatment and aspects of science. The author, Dr. Robert W. Shufeldt, is well known as an eminent writer on popular and scientific natural history, for many years Associate Zoologist at the Smithsonian Institution.
