IMPORTANT NOTICE FOR SUBSCRIBERS TO THE CONDOR

The annual subscription price of The Condor has been increased from $6 to $10. This change applies to all orders received after 1 May 1967, and becomes effective with volume 70 (1968) of the journal.

Subscribers who have already paid for a 1968 subscription will receive the journal at the former rate, but should note that the rate in 1969 will be $10.

The Cooper Ornithological Society regrets that the rising costs of publication have necessitated this action.

It should be noted by members of the Society that their membership dues, which include subscription to The Condor, are not affected by this action.

In addition, effective with volume 70 (1968), The Condor will become a quarterly journal published in January, April, July, and October. Librarians and subscription agencies should alter their records accordingly.

Subscription orders and inquiries concerning subscriptions and membership should be sent to the Treasurer, Jane R. Durham, 968 Cragmont Avenue, Berkeley, California 94708.
