

BIRD-BANDING

A Journal of Ornithological Investigation

Vol. XXIV

April, 1953

No. 2

PUBLISHED FOR
THE NORTHEASTERN BIRD-BANDING ASSOCIATION
THE EASTERN BIRD-BANDING ASSOCIATION
AND
THE INLAND BIRD-BANDING ASSOCIATION

CONTENTS

	PAGE
THE MIGRATION OF THE COMMON TERN ( Sterna hirundo ) IN THE WESTERN HEMISPHERE By Oliver L. Austin, Sr., M.D. . . . . .	39
THE RECORDING OF DIURNAL ACTIVITY PATTERNS IN CAGED BIRDS By Donald S Farner and L. R. Mewaldt . . . . .	55
DANGER OF LEG MUTILATION FROM THE USE OF METAL COLOR BANDS By Parker C. Reed . . . . .	65
GENERAL NOTES:—John Beck the second American bird-bander, 67; Shrike Visits Banding Trap, 67; Green Frog catches young Phoebe, 67; Migratory Status of Breeding Song Sparrows at Baltimore, Maryland, 68; Accidental Trapping of a Pied-billed Grebe, 69.
RECENT LITERATURE:—Banding, 69; Migration, 71; Food Habits, 74; Nesting, 75; Behavior, 77; Physiology, 79; Psychology, 80; Population Dynamics, 80; Longevity, 83; Faunistics, 83; Song, 85; Books, 86.
NOTES AND NEWS . . . . .	89