

BIRD-BANDING

A Journal of Ornithological Investigation

Vol. XXIV

July, 1953

No. 3

PUBLISHED FOR
THE NORTHEASTERN BIRD-BANDING ASSOCIATION
THE EASTERN BIRD-BANDING ASSOCIATION
AND
THE INLAND BIRD-BANDING ASSOCIATION

CONTENTS

	PAGE
BARN SWALLOW LIFE HISTORY DATA BASED ON BANDING RECORDS By Edwin A. Mason	91
HOME LIFE OF THE VEERY By Katharine C. Day	100
GENERAL NOTES:—Reapplying bands, 107; Notes on the Rough-winged Swallow, 107; The Rough-winged Swallow at South Windsor, Conn., 108; Evening Grosbeak Banded in Connecticut, Recovered in Manitoba, 108; A winter recovery of a banded Killdeer, 109; Electrocutation of a Baltimore Oriole, 109; Longevity Record for Chimney Swift, 109; An Unusual Accident to a Bronzed Grackle, 110; Screech Owl and banded birds, 110; Band Recovered in Pigeon Hawk's Gizzard, 110.
RECENT LITERATURE:—Banding, 110; Migration, 111; Longevity, 112; Food Habits, 113; Physiology, 113; Psychology, 114; Nesting, 114; Life History, 115; Behavior, 115; Wildlife Management, 119; Ecology, 121; Population Dynamics, 123; Parasites, 123; Faunistics, 124; Song, 126; Systematics and Taxonomy, 126; Morphology and Anatomy, 129; Books, 130.
NOTES AND NEWS	133