Birding In

VENEZUELA MARCH 6-19, 1980

COSTA RICA MARCH 15-30, 1980

Two great tours to two of the best birding areas in the Neotropics. Both these countries have a wealth of birdlife, stable economies, and excellent national park systems. Good field guides illustrate virtually all the species in each country in color! Whether you are a veteran neotropical birder or have never birded outside the United States you will find either of these trips most rewarding.
