

for each of us, so let us get at it and devote a little more of our time to the chapter.

With so large a membership so well distributed over the country, we should be able to fill many pages with interesting original notes.

Fellow members, I appeal to you to "do as you would be done by," do not wait for others to send in their notes but send in yours, and let us see if we cannot make our next Bulletin an interesting one. Yours truly,

WILLIAM B. CAULK.
