

THE WILSON BULLETINS.

Nos. 6 to 32, with the exceptions as given below consists of GENERAL NOTES Price 10 cents each.

"This unpretentious and commendable magazine appears regularly at a price which places it within the reach of every one. Thoroughly ornithological, and runs no fad or clique. There is more good bird matter in it than we find in some periodicals of greater prominence, and it well deserves success." DR. COUES, in the Osprey.

No. 5. The American Crow, 41 pages, FRANK L. BURNS. Price, 25 cents.

"Very comprehensive, and presents many facts of value both to the casual ornithologist and to the economic scientist."
—Nidologist.

No. 15, The Oberlin Grackle Roost, 18 pages, by LYNDS JONES, Price, 15 cents.

"This paper is to be commended for its clear presentation of an admirable piece of field work."—Auk.

No. 30, Warbler Songs, 56 pages, by LYNDS JONES, Price, 25 cents.

"The philosophic student of birds' language will find in this paper much to interest him, while bird lovers, to whom the Warblers are source of despair, may receive from it very effectual aid in making identification."—Bird Lore.

No. 31, Monograph of the Flicker, 82 pages, by FRANK L. BURNS, Price, 50 cents.

"As far as we know, the most complete existing biography of any North American bird."—Bird Lore.

No. 33, A Summer Reconnoissance in the West, 39 pages, by LYNDS JONES and W. L. DAWSON, Price, 20 cents.

"In this number Lynds Jones and W. E. Dawson record their ornithological observations made during a trip of 7,000 miles through fourteen states and territories.  We heartily commend this number."—DR. FISHER in Bird Lore.
